

Sample Security Guidelines

This PDF is a fictional source document for the RAG learning project.

Employees should never share API keys, passwords, or private customer data.

The knowledge assistant must only answer from sources the user is allowed to access.

If a source does not contain the answer, the assistant should say it does not know.